Happy Christmas from Fourth

Christmas 2020 Newsletter, please read and forward to your Scout...

Hi Andrew

I hope you and your family are well. Just a quick note as the year draws to a close.

Last Tuesday was our final meeting of the year; a year that posed many new challenges for our leaders, group management team and supporters. A huge, heartfelt thank you to everyone who went above and beyond to ensure Scouting at 4th Heswall continued throughout the year, in a safe and secure way, and to ensure our young people had unique experiences and unforgettable adventures.

EXTRAORDINARY YEAR

We have all had to overcome many challenges. Scouting has been proven to build resilience and here are some amazing stats to demonstrate that despite the pandemic, 4th Heswall Sea Scouts have had an extraordinary year.

SCOUT POST 2020

Please don't forget to send your Scout Post this year. The entire system has gone digital where you can select and send eCards to friends, family, teachers, Scout leaders and colleagues or anyone else, anywhere in world.

The service is free, although you are encouraged to make a donation to support Wirral Scouts and Guides.

In ordinary times this is our largest fundraising activity of the year for our group, any support you can offer

Stay safe, keep well, do your best.
