Scouting from Home Vol. 5

Hi Andrew

Newsletter 24/04/20

How was your first week back at virtual school?

This week we are thinking about communication and expression.

Did you wear your uniform during clap for carers last night? Did your adult take a short video clip? Please send it in if you did. If you didn't take a video, please can we ask for a short 10-20 second video of your scout in uniform clapping outside your front door. Send in via email, whatsapp or messenger and if we get enough responses we would like to edit them all together to make a short commemorative video.

Please forward this newsletter to Andrew and discuss the activities with them if they do not get this email directly.

Give this badge task a try from home, record your evidence. Let me know how you get on, share it, tag it, show it, send it, and you'll get the badge.

This week's try at home badge is:

ARTIST ACTIVITY BADGE

Draw, paint, sculpt or sketch three different things around you, present them as a gallery, explain your choices, the style and emotions of your art in a short video and send it in.

Paint, draw or illustrate each of these:

- a scene from a story
- a person or object
- a landscape

Show a selection of your own recent work.

Watch Party

The Personal Challenge Award badge can be easily completed at home with some imagination.

The leader set part of the challenge is to produce a video about Scouting, watch some entries from Sea Scouts who have recently achieved the Personal Challenge Award to give you some inspiration and to see what else you need to do.

GOING VIRAL #PhoneAFriendFriday

Good things trending on social media...

Think about someone who you haven't seen or spoken to for a few weeks, look up their number and with adult permission give them a call or Skype/FaceTime/Zoom call them. Ask your adult to do the same with someone they know.
