Scouting from Home Vol. 7

Hi Andrew

Newsletter 08/05/20

How are you this week? I have seen a few of you or your parents over the past few weeks whilst I've been out running or walking Marvin and it was great to see many of you during our Zoom quiz on Tuesday night.

It's so important now more than ever to get out for some exercise and fresh air every day.

We realise that for some families this is a very challenging and difficult time. Please don't feel obliged to take part in any activities we list here, they are merely suggestions that can offer your Scout an opportunity or distraction to do or view something different in these strange times.

It was announced earlier this week that the Beavan Challenge 2020 will not go ahead this year. The time frame to organise the event will be too short and the safety of the children delivered by careful and considered planning is paramount.

Please forward this newsletter to Andrew and discuss the activities with them if they do not get this email directly.

NEW STUFF THIS WEEK

Virtual Group Camp

There will be a 4th Heswall Virtual Group Camp Challenge this weekend, just one night or all three over the weekend, the Beavers, Cubs and Scouts are all taking part.

Let's get involved and have some fun!

Set up your tent/hammock/bivy/shelter/den in your garden or living room.

Make some s'mores, eat popcorn, drink hot chocolate, zoom call from your tent to your relatives or another Scout you know who is taking part. Ask your adult to judge your s'more making ability on a tea light or candle.

Don't forget to send your photos to us afterwards via OSM Badges at Home (Nights Away), via WhatsApp or email (don't forget to copy your adult in if you use your own email).

We'd love to share your adventures with the online Scout community, please ask your adult for permission for our group to do this.

#StayAtHomeSaveLives #CampAtHome #ScoutingAtHome

Let me know how many nights you camp out and I'll update your Nights Away badge record.

Zoom Best Guess BIG Quiz LIVE

Zoom Best Guess BIG Quiz LIVE, our Zoom call on Tuesday was really good and great to see so many of you. A big congratulations to Matthew and Thomas P with their score of 70%, their prize will be awarded once we can resume Scouting face to face.

The next Zoom details will be emailed after the weekend to your adult.

Badges at Home

Give this badge task a try from home, record your evidence. Let me know how you get on, share it, tag it, show it, send it, and you'll get the badge.

This week's try at home badge is:

MUSICIAN STAGED BADGE

You don't have to play an instrument to start your Musician badge, your voice is a instrument, you can even tap out a tune in some pots and pans for stage one, you could even film yourself banging out a tune during clap for carers.

If you play a musical instrument and have achieved recognised musical grades, ask your adult to upload your certificates and you'll get the badge.

With your adult's permission we can then publish your work on our website and social media. See your badge progress and upload evidence at the link below...

WATCH PARTY

Snow Day At Home

As part of your photographers badge why not have a go at a stop motion film, take a look at this fantastic video and search for the making of it too.

GOING VIRAL #CampAtHome

Congratulations, you were part of the worlds biggest camping project...

Same again this bank holiday weekend?

Some Explorers camped out for the whole of April under a tarp, some hedgehogs made a den behind the sofa for one night, whatever you did congratulations.

ONGOING ACTIVITIES

Extra Curricular Badges

Keep uploading evidence of your extra curricular activities. Dig out those certificates, medals and trophies, make a short presentation or document to explain and show your achievements, upload to OSM or send it in and we will update your badges.
